The two Presents.—A year or two since, an enterprising farmer in the land of 'steady habits,' chanced to raise on his annual turnip patch, a turnip of most extraordinary and prodigious size. It occurred to Jonathan, that this large turnip, which was the marvel of the whole town and country, ought to be turned to some better account than to be given to the hogs or sold by the bushel. He had heard that some of the literati of New York had done well by sending botanical specimens as presents to the Emperor Alexander, and that his majesty, among other valuables, had sent gold rings in exchange for less ponderous articles than his turnip. Jonathan's mind was therefore made up, that the great turnip should be a vegetable, and he hoped, a meet offering to the Czar of all the Russias. The turnip was accordingly sent to St. Petersburg, and in due time, Jonathan received in return several valuable pieces of coin. His neighbors all learned his good fortune, and one of them, emulous of Jonathan's luck, soon after manufactured a cheese of huge dimensions, and despatched it as a present for the table of Alexander, and in the mean time waited anxiously for the result of the venture. The cheese was even larger than the turnip, and the neighborhood all thought it fair to conclude, that his majesty would make a proportionable equivalent for the gift. At length it was announced, a vessel had arrived at Stonington, bringing a large box from Russia for 'squire Morgan, who sent the cheese last year. The box, which was carefully sealed, and directed, was opened in presence of all the family connexions, and a goodly number of the 'squire's neighbours, and on removing the packing materials, instead of the expected treasure, the great turnip was discovered, which the spectators immediately recognized as their old acquaintance, and Jonathan declared, that "for his part he didn't see but what the turnip had stood the viage darn'd well."

18th Congress, 2d Session.

IN SENATE.

Friday, Feb. 11.

Mr. Dickerson presented a petition from Thomas Cooper, of South Carolina, (formerly of Pennsylvania) praying that a fine imposed upon and paid by him, for an alleged libel against John Adams, then President of the United States, under the act of Congress commonly called the "Sedition Law," may be refunded.

The Senate, on motion of Mr. Smith, took up the bill making appropriations for the Military Service for the year 1825.

The Committee of the Senate recommended the striking out of the appropriation of 28,567 dollars to defray the expense of continuing surveys for Internal Improvements.

This motion gave rise to a debate of considerable duration which ended in a rejection of the motion by a vote of 18 to 21.

The Senate, after this, spent some time in Executive business; and then adjourned to Monday.

Monday, Feb. 14.

The Senate took up, in committee of the whole, the bill making appropriations for the naval service for the year 1825.

The bill was reported to the Senate, and was ordered to a third reading.

The Senate next proceeded to the consideration, in committee of the whole, of the bill making appropriations for the civil service of the Government for the year 1825; and after various amendments,

The bill was reported to the Senate, and the amendments were concurred in. The bill was then ordered to a third reading, as amended.

The following message was received from the President of the United States:

To the Senate of the United States:

I herewith transmit a report from the Secretary of War, with a report to him by the Chief Engineer, of the examination which has been made by the Board of Engineers for Internal Improvements, in obedience to their instructions, of the country between the Potomac and Ohio rivers, between the latter and Lake Erie, between the Alleghany and Schuylkill rivers, the Delaware and the Raritan, between Buzzard's and Barnstable bays, and the Narragansett roads and Boston Harbor, with explanatory observations on each route.—From the view which I have taken of these reports, I contemplate results of incalculable advantage to our Union, because I see in them the most satisfactory proof, that certain impediments, which had a tendency to embarrass the intercourse between some of its most important sections, may be removed without serious difficulty, and that facilities may be afforded in other quarters, which will have the happiest effect. Of the right in Congress to promote these great results, by the appropriation of the public money, in harmony with the states to be affected by them, having already communicated my sentiments fully, and on mature consideration, I deem it unnecessary to enlarge at this time.

JAMES MONROE.

Washington, Feb. 14*th*, 1825.

Tuesday, Feb. 15.

The Senate resumed, as in Committee of the Whole, the bill to amend the judicial system of the United States, and to provide for three additional Circuit Courts; the question being on recommitting the bill with instructions,

Mr. Johnson, of Kentucky, offered a few remarks explanatory of the nature of the bill, and called for the Yeas and Nays.

Mr. Tazewell, of Virginia, adverted to the importance of the measure, and the impossibility of its receiving the consideration which it merited, and passing through both Houses of Congress the present session. He then moved that the bill and resolution be indefinitely postponed.

On the motion to postpone the bill indefinitely, a long debate took place, which consumed the remainder of the day's sitting.

The question being taken on the indefinite postponement of the bill, it was decided in the negative, by yeas and nays, 16 to 28.

The question then recurring on the motion to recommit the bill with instructions,

The Senate adjourned.

Wednesday, Feb. 16.

On motion of Mr. Benton, the bill for the occupation of the Columbia River, was made the special order for Monday next.

The Senate then again took up, in committee of the whole, (Mr. King of Alabama, in the Chair,) the bill to amend the Judicial System of the United States, and for the appointment of three additional Circuit Judges, (in the Western States,) the question pending being on the recommitment of the bill to the Judiciary Committee.

After a short debate on this question, it was decided by Yeas and Nays, 23 to 23.

The Senate being equally divided on the question, the motion to recommit was lost, and the consideration of the bill proceeded; but without coming to a decision,

The Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Monday, Feb. 14.

The Speaker laid before the House a letter from Mr. Livermore, resigning his seat in this House; he having received the appointment of Judge in New Hampshire.

On motion of Mr. Spaight, of North Carolina, it was

Resolved, That the Committee on the Post Office and Post Roads be instructed to inquire into the expediency of establishing a post route from Newbern, by Portsmouth, to Ocracock, in North Carolina.

On motion of Mr. Long, of N. C. it was

Resolved, That the Committee on the Post Office and Post Roads be instructed to inquire into the expediency of establishing a post route from Salem, by Clemmonstown, to Marksville, in North Carolina.

On motion of Mr. Taylor, of N. Y. it was

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to examine and report what business ought to be acted upon at the present session of Congress.

On motion of Mr. Tattnall, of Georgia, the House then took up the report of the Committee on Military Affairs, adverse to the Georgia Militia Claims; and the question being on recommitting it to that committee with the following instructions:

"To report a bill making an appropriation for the payment of the Georgia militia claims for services rendered in the years 1792, 1793, and 1794—the appropriation to be conformed to the report of the Secretary of War, made to this House upon the subject of these claims in the year 1803, and to embrace each class of claims respectively, as described by that report."

Mr. Tattnall rose, and addressed the House at considerable length, in favor of the recommitment.

Mr. Forsyth wished distinctly to understand the ground on which the claim had been resisted by the Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. Hamilton (Chairman of that committee) in reply, called for the reading of the report of the Military Committee in 1802, of the Committee of Claims, and also of the Military Committee of last session.

[These reports were read accordingly.]

Mr. H. then, in a few words, stated the views of the committee in rejecting the claim.

Mr. Mallary, of Vt. went at considerable length into the vindication of the claim.

Mr. Forsyth, of Georgia, notwithstanding the lateness of the hour, (it was now near 4 o'clock) declared himself bound, by a sense of duty, to deliver his views on the general subject, which he did at length.

Mr. Hamilton rose in reply, but gave way to a motion for adjournment, which was carried.

Tuesday, Feb. 15.

Mr. Jennings, of Indiana, presented certain resolutions of the General Assembly of the state of Indiana, approving the conduct of Congress in relation to General Lafayette.

The House then passed to the unfinished business of yesterday, which was the motion of Mr. Tattnall, to recommit the report of the Military Committee on the Georgia Militia Claims, with instructions to report a bill for the payment of them.

Mr. Hamilton then addressed the House at considerable length, in explanation and support of the report of the committee.

He was followed by Mr. Forsyth, on the opposite side, who repeated, and urged at great extent, his objections to the report.

Mr. M'Coy made a few remarks on the question; when,

The question was put on the motion to recommit the report, and decided in the negative—ayes 51, noes 73.

And then the House adjourned.

Wednesday, Feb. 16.

Mr. Govan, from a Select Committee, to whom was referred so much of the President's Message as relates to the Slave Trade, made a report on that subject; which was referred to a committee of the whole on the State of the Union, and made the order of the day for Monday next.

Mr. Van Rensselaer offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That this House will, on Friday next, proceed to the election of a Printer for the 19th Congress.

On motion of Mr. Little, it was amended by substituting Monday for Friday, and in that form it was agreed to.

The House then proceeded to the unfinished business of yesterday.

The resolution of the committee on Military Affairs, rejecting the Georgia claims, was concurred in by the House. [This question was, in effect, decided yesterday, when the House refused to recommit the report.]

Mr. Hamilton moved that the House take up the bill providing for the Massachusetts Militia Claims, and, with a view to ascertain whether it was the determination of the House to act on that subject at the present session at all, he demanded the yeas and nays on his motion. The House refused to order the yeas and nays—and the motion was negatived.

The House took up the General and Navy Appropriation Bills, as returned from the Senate, and, after concurring in some of the amendments made by the Senate, and disagreeing to others, the bills were passed and returned to the Senate.

Anecdote of Joseph Lancaster.—The well known wit of this philanthropic man has always been directed and tending to moral good, fearless of any consequences. A memorable instance of it occurred at Dublin Castle, on his first visit to his grace the Duke of Bedford, while Viceroy of Ireland. Seated at table over wine, after dinner, by the side of a young bare bosomed Patrician, who thus merrily toasted him, 'Well Friend Lancaster, here's to thy broad brim'd hat!' Taking his glass, he rejoined, 'I am not accustomed to such ceremonies, but as thou dost challenge me to return the compliment—Lady Mary, here's to thy absent handkerchief;' on which she retired, covered with blushes, and the laugh against her.

LATE FROM ENGLAND.

Charleston, Feb. 16.

We have been favoured with the loan of London papers of the 7th ult. brought by the Br. ship Corsair, Capt. PETRIE, arrived in the offing on Monday evening, in 33 days from Liverpool; extracts from which will be found below.

Letters from Liverpool of the 9th, state that expresses had been despatched to every part of the world where Cotton is produced, with information of the stock on hand in England, at the close of the year, and the consequent advance in prices in that country.

The New-York ship Leeds, which got ashore on the 5th ult. coming out of Liverpool, had returned, and, in endeavouring to get into the King's Dock, filled with water, and it was supposed would be entirely lost.

The Message of the President of the United States, (says the London New Times of the 4th ult.) is hourly expected in town.

London, Jan. 4.—Mr. Canning communicated to all the Foreign Ministers, in the afternoon of Saturday last, at the Foreign Office, that the Cabinet of his Britannic Majesty had come to the resolution of acknowledging the independence of Mexico and Colombia. Commissioners would be sent to those States, charged with full powers to conclude Treaties of Commerce between them and this country, founded on that recognition.

The recognition of Buenos Ayres, which has long possessed a settled Government, may soon be expected. We understand that some further information, respecting its extent and external relations, is wished for before recognizing this State. No report from Chili has yet been received.

We understand also that Col. Campbell and Mr. Ward were an hour with Mr. Canning on Sunday, at Gloucester-lodge, when they received their final instructions from that Gentleman, previous to their leaving town on Wednesday next to embark in the Egeria, at Plymouth, for Colombia and Mexico, where they are to reside permanently, the former Commission being dissolved. These gentlemen are charged with full powers to negotiate and conclude a Treaty of Commerce with the States in question.

London, Jan. 6.—The Quarter's Accounts of the Revenue will not be completely made up till to-morrow. We are happy, however, to be enabled to state positively, that the produce of the Excise will exhibit an increase of rather more than £600,000, on the Quarter, and of nearly a Million on the Year. The Stamps, after making due allowance for the repeal which has taken place in that department, will be found at least equivalent to the corresponding Quarter, and will exhibit a very considerable increase on the Year. The Post Office is nearly £60,000 better. With respect to the Customs we must speak less positively, the Accounts of that branch not being brought so nearly to a close: it is stated, however, that the Customs, in which repayments and repeals of Duties have taken place to the amount of £1,500,000 in the year, give within £168,000 on the Year, and within £30,000 on the Quarter, of their former produce; which in fact is an advance of nearly a Million a year in the articles still subject to taxation.

Such a view of the growing resources of the country is most cheering. Nothing can more conclusively prove the wisdom of that policy which His Majesty's Government continues to pursue, promoting the developement of the national industry by all the means in its power, and availing itself of the accumulations of capital and the progress of science, to encourage new and more productive undertakings. Hence there is reason to hope that the anticipation of the Chancellor of the Exchequer will not only be realized, but exceeded, and that the Right Hon. Gentleman may, ere long, have the pleasing task of relieving the public still further from its burthens.

Further particulars of the Loss of ship Diamond.—The Liverpool Advertiser of the 6th January, contains the following particulars of the loss of this vessel, which have been obtained from the consignees of the vessel:—

Cabin Passengers Lost—Mrs. Wood, of Saddleworth; Mr. Broadbent, of do.; Mr. Given, of New York; and a young female, the child of Mr. and Mrs. Bettely, of Baltimore, who were saved. The body of Mr. Wood has been found. In his pockets were upwards of £7,000, which has been saved. Capt. Macy, a most respectable individual, and very well known in the trade; Mr. Clarke, the chief mate; and one seaman; also, a person named Lowe, and two other steerage passengers; making in all ten individuals, met with a watery grave.

Liverpool, Jan. 8.—In consequence of our Stock proving so much lighter than was previously estimated, Cotton has been in great demand, particularly in the early part of the week, and the total sales amount to about 30,700 bags.

Nothing done in Tar or Turpentine; and nothing worthy of particular remark has occurred in Tobacco. The Corn has not been so brisk this week continue our former quotations.

A Postscript of a letter of the says—"Our Cotton market has to-day, and American might have at 1-8d. lower."

Pensioners.—It appears from a document laid before Congress the session, that the following sums paid by the United States to pen the year 1824, viz: The Rev Pensioners amount to 13,034, and to 1,337,316 dollars; the Invalid P amount to 3,736, and their pay t dollars 69 cents; those who rec pay in lieu of bounty land, amou and their pay to 9,876 dollars. the year 1824, there have died, tionary pensioners 441, invalid d pay, none; and in the same per have been added to the number tionary pensioners 675, invalid half pay 1. The al Intelligencer states that Mr. Craw- s declined the earnest request of Mr. to remain at the head of the Trea- epartment; and, having offered his re for sale, it is supposed that he tire to his farm in Georgia. Mr. will probably fill the office vacated Crawford.

In relation to the Department of State, the National Intelligencer of Thursday last has the following paragraph:

"It is said, and we have no doubt of it, that the President elect has offered to Mr. Speaker Clay the office of Secretary of State, and it seems to be thought that he will accept it.

"The only other fact, concerning the composition of the cabinet, which rumor presents to us in a probable shape, is this: that the six New England States, as represented here, have spontaneously waived any claim they might be supposed to have had, to furnish a Member of the Cabinet of the President elect."

It is believed that Messrs. Southard, Wirt, and McLean will continue to fill the offices at present held by them.

FROM THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER.

Messrs. Gales & Seaton:

The rumor which you mentioned, in your paper of this morning, of the spontaneous waving of any claims which the New England States might have to a seat in the Cabinet, is not well founded. Those states, as represented here, neither make any pretensions, nor waive any.

Feb. 17.

By a letter from Duncan G. Campbell and James Meriwether, to the Governor of Georgia, it appears that those gentlemen, Commissioners for that purpose, have concluded a treaty with the Creek Indians residing within the state of Georgia, by which the Chiefs of the Creek nation agree to relinquish to the United States nearly all the lands owned by them within that state.

William Henry Harrison, former a Representative in Congress, previously Governor of Indiana, and Commander on the North Western Frontier during the late war, has been chosen a Senator of the United States, from the State of Ohio, to succeed Mr. Brown, whose present term of service will expire on the 3d day of March next.

Nat. Int.

The Senate will meet on the 4th of March next, for the despatch of public business. It is summoned by a Circular Letter from the President of the United States, addressed to the several members, including those who are understood to have been already appointed to supply vacancies occurring in that body on that day.—Nat. Journal.

Philip P. Barbour, a member of the House of Representatives, and lately Speaker of the House, has been elected a Judge of the General Court of Virginia, vice Judge Holmes, deceased. He accepts the appointment, and will necessarily resign his seat in the House of Representatives. In expressing our sincere regret that his domestic concerns demand from him the acceptance of an office which will allow him to give more of his personal attention to them, we but utter the universal sentiment. Mr. Barbour has been eleven successive years in the House of Representatives, and has, during that service, justly acquired the respect and esteem of all men.—Ib.

In the state of OHIO, a measure of the very first importance has just received the sanction of both branches of the Legislature, in the form of a law. It is the construction of a CANAL from the mouth of the Scioto River to Lake Erie, at the mouth of the Cuyahoga River. The whole length of this great Canal, and of its feeders, is to be about three hundred and twelve miles. It is to be made entirely by the authority of the state, which is to borrow the money on its own credit, and will readily obtain it, having pledged a fund for paying the interest, &c. and laid a tax for the purpose.

Bank of the United States.—Under the head of "Official Documents," will be found an account of the latest of the General Statements of the Bank of the United States, which were elicited by the motion of Mr. Cambreleng, calling for them. This statement shows the Bank to be in a prosperous condition, and doing a good business, as is apparent from the fact that the institution, with its capital stock of thirty-five millions of dollars, is receiving interest upon $50,258,823 37, of which, perhaps forty millions carry an interest of six per cent. This is exclusive of the item of "mortgages," and of others stated as doubtful, and of the interest, if any received, on debts due from the State Banks.

The amount of specie on hand is large, and the amount of notes in circulation small, viz: $6,091,799, as is ascertained by deducting the amount of "notes on hand" from the amount of "notes issued." The amount of "dividends unclaimed" appears large, from the circumstance of the semi-annual dividend having been declared the moment before the date of the statement.

From the Statement of February 3, 1824, and that of January 6, 1825, we ascertain the following facts, by a comparison of which we shall arrive at results which will still better enable us to judge of the condition of the institution:

	In Feb. 1824.	In Jan. 1825.
Funded debt,	10,874,014	18,422,027
Notes issued,	11,671.387	13,234,842
Notes on hand,	6,668,215	7,193,043
Profit and loss and cont. int.	271,708	709,758

With these great advantages of the present time over that of the year past, the amount of discounted bills, of all sorts, is not lessened two millions of dollars.

North Carolina Gold.—Letters from that part of North Carolina, in the vicinity of which gold has been found, state, that there has been a considerable quantity of gold found since November last, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. Somewhere near the source of Long creek, a mine has been discovered on the land of Mr. Barringer, who is thought to be enriched by it. Some say he has found, already, half a barrel of gold, while some limit the quantity to half a bushel. It is said to have been found on the side of a hill, between two strata of slate stone, and to consist of a mixture of gold-dust and sand. It was supposed that Mr. B. had already collected gold to the value of fifteen thousand dollars. Another letter states, that, in Cabarrus county, a week or two ago, a single lump of gold was found, weighing 27 pounds! Our informant himself saw, a few months ago, one lump of more than four, and another of more than three pounds weight, that had been found.

National Industry.—The two facts we are now about to state are of infinitely more interest to the statesman and the patriot, and vastly more auspicious of an increase in national wealth, than the facts stated in the above paragaph, however interesting they may be:

1. Within twenty miles round the City of Boston, there are now annually made forty thousand pieces of Flannel, each piece containing 46 yards. [The largest quantity of the same article ever imported in any one year, was 55,000 pieces.]

2. Not a vessel now leaves the port of Baltimore (and we presume this to be true of other ports) for South American ports, which does not carry, as part of her cargo, American Manufactures of Cotton to the value of from ten to twenty thousand dollars.—Ib.

The U. States Board of Engineers have awarded to Mr. John Bruce, of Kentucky, the premium of one thousand dollars—he having presented to the Engineer Department the most approved invention for the removal of the Sawyers, Planters, and Snags, in the Mississippi River.

Hayti.—Port au Prince papers, to the 9th ult. state, that the anniversary of Haytian independence was celebrated on the 1st; during which the president delivered an address, in which he called on the senate, the army, and the people, to "swear to posterity, and to the whole world, to renounce forever, not only the domination of France, but that of all other powers whatever, that may wish to reduce us to submission, and to die rather than cease to be free and independent."

IN SENATE.

Thursday, Feb. 17.

The Senate resumed, as in committee of the whole, the bill to amend the judicial system of the United States, and to authorize the creation of three additional Circuit Courts.

Mr. King of N. Y., considering that it became more and more apparent that the subject could not be effectually acted on at the present session, moved that the bill and amendments be indefinitely postponed.

This motion was decided in the negative, by yeas and nays, 19 to 27.

Mr. Van Buren moved an amendment, to reduce the additional number of Circuit Judges to be provided for by the bill to two, so that there should be, (with the one in the Western States) three Circuit Judges in that section of the Union.

The question was taken on this amendment, by yeas and nays, and decided in the affirmative, 28 to 17.

The bill was then recommitted to the Judiciary Committee, (for the arrangement of the circuits, &c.)

Friday, Feb. 18.

Mr. King, of N. Y. submitted the following resolution:

Resolved, That as soon as the portion of the existing funded debt of the U. States, for the payment of which the public land of the U. S. is pledged, shall have been paid off, then, and henceforth, the whole of the public lands of the U. S. with the net proceeds of all future sales thereof, shall constitute and form a fund, which is hereby appropriated, and the faith of the U. States is pledged, that the said fund shall be inviolably applied to aid the emancipation of such slaves, and the removal of such free persons of color in any of the said states, as, by the laws of the states respectively, may be allowed to be emancipated or removed, to any territory or country without the limits of the United States of America.

The resolution was read, and, on motion by Mr. Benton, it was ordered to be printed.

The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of the bill, reported by the Select Committee to whom the subject was referred, authorizing the purchase of the equestrian portrait of Washington, by Rembrandt Peale.

Mr. Holmes, of Maine, moved to strike out $6000, the sum appropriated by the bill, and insert 4000.

Mr. Chandler called for a division of the question; and the question was first taken on striking out 6000; which was carried in the affirmative.—Ayes 20; Noes 14.

Mr. Holmes moved to fill the blank with 4000 dollars.

Mr. Hayne moved 5,000, and stated as a reason that he was well satisfied that the artist would not take 4,000 dollars.

The question on this motion was decided in the negative.

The question was then taken on Mr. Holmes's motion to fill the blank with 4,000, and it was lost.—Ayes 12; Noes 23.

The bill was then ordered to lie on the table.

The Senate adjourned to eleven o'clock on Monday.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Thursday, Feb 17.

Mr. Tomlinson, from a Select Committee, to whom was referred the message of the President on that subject, reported a bill carrying into effect the resolutions of Congress, for erecting monuments to the memories of the late Generals Wooster and Davidson; which was twice read and committed.

Mr. Taylor, from the Select Committee on that subject, made a report recommending an arrangement of the business before the House.

On motion of Mr. Edwards, it was

Resolved, That the committee on the Post Office and Post Roads inquire into the expediency of establishing a post road from Haysville, in Franklin, N. C. by Chalk Level, to Williamsborough, in the county of Granville, in said state.

The Speaker laid before the House a communication from the Treasury, accompanied by statements of the Commerce and Navigation of the United States for the year ending September 30, 1824; which were laid upon the table, and 3000 copies thereof were ordered to be printed.

DIED,

POETRY.

ON LEAVING HOME.

God bless thee! was the last endearing word
The lip could utter, or the heart could feel!
But there was one from whom was only heard
God bless thee! and it was affection's knell
For many a lonely day—
The very phrase
Was oft repeated by the parting voice
Of youthful friendship; and the last farewell
Of some who lov'd me in my boyish days,
Was warm and tearful—
Yet there was one,
Whose heart beat quicker than her eyes ran o'er;
Whose trembling lips refus'd to whisper more,
Than that warm prayer.
It was a hallow'd tone!

FOUR slaves belonging to the estate of William Russell, deceased, having gone off from Fayetteville, in the spring of 1823, with a copy of their master's will, by which they were set at liberty contrary to the laws of North-Carolina; and this part of the will having been declared null by the decision of the courts,

An Act concerning the town of Fayetteville.

Whereas, it is deemed expedient that the sum of six thousand dollars should be raised, by way of loan, for the use of the town of Fayetteville; and whereas, much danger and inconvenience is apprehended by many of the citizens of said town, from the prejudicial to the health of said citizens, from the exposure of combustible materials in the more settled parts of the town, and the want of proper attention to repairing such buildings as, by the decay of time and weather, have become particularly liable to fire, thereby greatly endangering the property of the owners of valuable buildings and other property in the said town; and whereas, it is deemed advisable, that no Commissioner of the said town should be liable to indictment, as heretofore, for any nuisance existing in the said town, or the same may exist in his own ward.

1. Be it therefore enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Commissioners of the town of Fayetteville, for the time being, and their successors in office, shall, at any time hereafter, have power and authority to borrow on the credit of the Corporation, an amount not exceeding six thousand dollars, and for that purpose to open books of subscription, at such time and place as a majority of them, may deem expedient, in which books any person, desiring to lend to the Corporation, may subscribe for such number of shares of the sum intended to be borrowed, as the said Commissioners, as will amount to the same; and the said subscriber may be disposed to pay the amount of each share to be stated by the Commissioners in their books of subscription, at the time the same are opened.

2. And be it further enacted, That the said persons so subscribing, shall pay to the Treasurer the amount by him, her, or them, so subscribed, at such time, and in such proportions, as the said Commissioners shall direct.

3. And be it further enacted, That such subscriber or stockholders shall be entitled to receive annually, three per centum upon such amount as he, she, or they, shall have paid to the Town Treasurer, under the direction of the said Commissioners.

4. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall stipulate, in their books of subscription, at what time, and in what proportions they will repay the moneys so lent them.

5. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall issue to each stockholder a certificate, having annexed thereto the seal of the Corporation of said town, to be signed by the Town Treasurer, and countersigned by the Magistrate of Police, setting forth the amount of each share, the number which said stockholder is entitled, and the object of the loan, which certificate shall be transferable by endorsement of the holder; and, upon the same to different persons of any number of shares contained in any one certificate, the said Commissioners shall, upon application, and the return of the certificate, shall, from time to time, issue new certificates comprehending a smaller or greater number of shares, as to suit the convenience of stockholders: Provided, that the said Commissioners shall grant no certificate for the fraction of a share.

6. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Commissioners of the Town, for the time being, and their successors in office, to levy such taxes, and enforce the collection of the same, as may be necessary to meet the semi-annual payments of interest to stockholders, and also repayments of instalments, according to the terms of the same, provided such taxes shall not exceed those now authorised by law. And any Commissioner neglecting their said duty, shall be held individually responsible to the said stockholders for the payment of their interest, and the repayment of the principal according to the terms of the loan.

7. And be it further enacted, That, when the Commissioners shall have reduced the amount borrowed, by the payment of any instalment, to the said sum of six thousand dollars, they shall have power and authority to open their books of subscription, upon the same terms, and under the same restrictions, as herein before prescribed, to increase their debt to the said amount of six thousand dollars, which is the utmost the said Commissioners shall owe as a funded debt at any one time, exclusive of interest.

8. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall have power and authority to cause the removal of such nuisances as, in their opinion, endanger the public safety, either on account of health, or fire, and to impose such penalties as will enforce obedience.

9. And be it further enacted, That, in future, no one of the Commissioners shall be indictable for nuisances occurring in his own ward, and not for nuisances occurring in the ward of any other Commissioner.

Read three times and ratified in General Assembly, this 31st day of December, 1824.
